

Livingston High School and The DBQ Project
are pleased to invite you to a Fall Seminar

DEMOCRATIZING THE DBQ

Historical Thinking and Writing in Grades 4-12

Saturday, November 20, 2010
9:30 – 12:30

Livingston High School
30 Robert H. Harp Drive
Livingston, NJ

A lively, interactive seminar for NJ educators to discuss:

How can the DBQ be a powerful tool in improving our students' historical thinking, critical reading and powerful, evidence-based writing?

How should teachers structure the DBQ experience so that all students, at all skill levels, are challenged and successful?

Cost:

- FREE for schools that purchase DBQ Project materials before the seminar (each school may send one teacher for each binder purchased)
- $100 (admission fee may be applied toward the purchase price of materials after the seminar)

Please register no later than Friday, November 12th.

If you have questions, wish to purchase DBQ Project materials or reserve your spot for the seminar, please contact:

JANINE CORRIN

862 205 9829

janine@dbqproject.com

www.dbqproject.com

The DBQ Project materials available:

- DBQs in American History
- DBQs in World History
- MiniQs in US History
- MiniQs in World History (coming soon!)